Dear Members,

ADJUDICATING VARIATION ACCOUNTS

The London and South East Region of the Adjudication Society have organised an event which will be of interest to all those involved with, or interested in, adjudicating variations.

Title: Practical and legal issues relevant to the resolution of Multiple Variations in Adjudication

Venue: Holman Fenwick Willan LLP, Friary Court, 65 Crutched Friars, London EC3N 2AE
http://www.hfw.com/downloads/maps_London.pdf

Date and Time: Wednesday, 5 October 2016, 18.00 for 18.30hrs. Preceded and followed by refreshments.

The Society is very pleased that Holman Fenwick Willan is kindly hosting and speaking at this seminar event. Michael Sergeant, Partner, and Richard Booth, Senior Associate, will talk on the following:

- Practical and tactical considerations when adjudicating multiple variations.
- Is the Adjudicator required to consider each disputed variation, or can the variation account be adjudicated on a sample or other summary basis?
- Common legal issues arising from the adjudication of multiple variations and how to deal with those issues in the context of the adjudication process.
- Possible jurisdictional pitfalls for the unwary.
- Adjudicating key variations as a prelude to a final account/ delay claim.

Space is limited so please make sure you book early to guarantee a place.

This meeting is free for members of the Adjudication Society and their guests, but places must be booked in advance by email to AdjudicationSociety@mcms.co.uk.

This meeting is accredited for 1.5 hours CPD by the Solicitors Regulation Authority and the Bar Standards Board.

With kind regards,

Frank Rayner
