Speaker

Chris Harrall, Adjudicator

Join us for an informal in-person discussion with Chris Harrall, Adjudicator, as he shares practical insight into adjudication from the decision-maker’s side of the table.

“Through the Eyes of the Adjudicator” will offer a valuable perspective on the issues, arguments and approaches that commonly arise in adjudications, together with reflections on what adjudicators are often grappling with day to day when dealing with live disputes.

This will be a great opportunity to hear directly from an adjudicator on the realities of the process, common pitfalls, and the practical considerations that can influence how disputes are presented and determined.

We hope you can join us for what should be an insightful and engaging evening.
