A not-for-profit Society promoting resolution of construction disputes by means of adjudication

THE SOUTH WEST AND WALES Region of the ADJUDICATION SOCIETY together with the SOCIETY FOR CONSTRUCTION LAW is pleased to announce the following event:

Smash and Grab Adjudications – Dead or Alive?

An Open Forum discussion on Grove Developments Ltd v S&T (UK) Ltd

This event will be slightly different to our normal events. After a short introduction, three people will give a brief opinion on the outcome of Grove and may even give their opinion on what the Court of Appeal should decide!

The discussion will be chaired by Andrew Kearney and led by advisers and practising construction adjudicators Dennis Baldwin and Peter Gracia and also by Rachel Gwilliam, partner in Blake Morgan construction department. Others who wish to share their views are warmly invited either to put their names forward in advance to (Rachel) for a more formal 1-5 min slot (with slides if preferred) or to just speak from the floor.

Following which there will be an opportunity for an open forum discussion for all, to discuss what this case may mean for the future of what have come to be known as “Smash & Grab” adjudications.

Venue Blake Morgan LLP, One Central Square, Cardiff, CF10 1FS

Time Wednesday 20 June 2018 at 6.00 pm, with refreshments from 5:30pm.

This event is free to members and guests. Please contact Rachel Gwilliam (Rachel.Gwilliam@blakemorgan.co.uk) to reserve places.

Our thanks to Blake Morgan for hosting.

NB: The Adjudication Society Annual Conference in Bristol at the Mercure Bristol Holland House on Thursday 8 November 2018.
