“BIM new challenges, new disputes?”

Jessica Stephens and Tim Willis

Based upon Tim's talk given to Arbrix this year Tim will present the potential issues arising as BIM is introduced into the construction process. Jessica Stephens will consider the liability and dispute issues that tribunals will have to deal with.

Jessica Stephens was called to the bar in 2001 and is recommended as a leading junior for Construction and Engineering in Chambers & Partners and Legal 500. She has previously been identified by The Times as one of ten future stars of the Bar.

Jessica has considerable experience of all aspects of adjudication including advising on and drafting documents within the adjudication process and has regularly appeared at enforcement hearings, injunctions to restrain the continuation of adjudications and declarations as to the adjudicator's jurisdiction.

Tim is a consultant in Trowers & Hamlins dispute resolution team. Tim is a member of the committee of the BIM Regions West Midlands and has given numerous talks and written many articles on managing risk in the context of BIM.

Tuesday 14 June at Austin Court, 80 Cambridge Street, Birmingham B1 2NP

There will be a buffet followed by the talk. Buffet 6.00 – 6.30 pm. 6.30 pm talk and discussion.

I would like to attend the event on 14th June. I will notify the organiser if I cannot attend in recognition of the food wasted if I fail to do so, not later than 24hrs before the event.
